James Acaster is the covert stand-up comedian persona of undercover cop Pat Springleaf. Everyone knows that. And as it's obligatory for all comedians to have a podcast these days, Pat wants in. When Pat was undercover, he wore his wire 24-7-365. Or 366 if it was a leap year. In this one-off event for Just For Laughs LONDON, Pat talks to Nish Kumar about the true-crime podcast he's been working on, in which he uses the wire recordings he's amassed over years of infiltrating criminal gangs to blow wide open the biggest case he ever worked on. A case, it transpires, in which Nish played an unwitting part...

Shaparak Khorsandi presents "It Was The 90's!" | Saturday, March 4, 2023 | O2 Blueroom | 4:00 PM

Ah, the 90s! The decade that Shaparak was in her twenties and 'ladette' culture ruled the school. The decade when there was nothing to be done but party, and Shaparak found herself flying about London with hope in her heart, a tenner in her pocket and spare knickers in her handbag. She matched the boy's pint-for-pint and frequently woke up in parts of London she'd never heard of. With hindsight though, the way people behaved back then looks like the ultimate in self-harm. In those days, 'mindfulness' was making sure you had enough money for the night bus and 'self-care' was putting your flat shoes in a handbag. This is a show about how we 90s kids are looking to young people to learn how to take care of ourselves.

A Gay and A NonGay Podcast | Sunday, March 5, 2023 | Screen 16, Cineworld at The O2 | 4:00 PM
